

Family Animal Charades

Children love to act things out and playing animal charades is a fun way to get your child moving and using their imagination!

What You Need

Animal Charade Cards (included in this game) or draw your own pictures
Bowl or small container

Directions

1. Cut out the Animal Charade Cards from this game sheet, or make your own by drawing and writing the names of different animals on small pieces of paper.
2. Fold each card and place them in a bowl.
2. The first player picks one card from the bowl. This is the animal they must act out for the rest of the group.
3. Try to act out the animal without making any sounds if possible.
4. The first person to guess the animal correctly takes the next turn and picks a new card from the bowl.

Extensions Ideas

1. Team Play

Divide into teams and take turns acting and guessing.

2. Everyday Action Cards

Use clip art, magazine cutouts or stickers, or make your own drawing of everyday actions. Everyday actions to include could be brushing teeth, eating an ice cream cone, sleeping, taking a bath or reading a book. Use the same directions for Animal Charades.
