

Asking Fun Questions

You might be used to your child asking lots of questions every day. While this may be frustrating at times, answering your child's questions helps them know that their curiosity is valued. We want to continue to motivate this curiosity by turning the tables and asking them questions! We hope these questions will lead to some engaging conversations.

Possible Questions

1. What movie, TV, or book character makes you laugh the most?
2. If you opened a store, what would you sell?
3. What's your superhero name, and what powers do you have?
4. If you could grow anything in the yard, what would it be?
5. Did you smile or laugh extra today? What did you laugh about?
6. Pretend you're a chef and tell me about your restaurant. What foods do you serve?
7. Where would you like to travel and why? How would you get there?
8. If you could ask a wild animal any question, what would you ask?
9. If you could make up a new holiday, what would it be?
10. If you could fly anywhere for a day, where would you go and what would you do?
11. If you found a magic door, where would it lead?